

OILES AMERICA

Client:

Oiles America Corporation

Facility Type:

Manufacturing Facility

Location:

Concord, North Carolina

Size:

40,000 s.f.

Construction Date:

July 1990 - February 1991

Overview:

From assisting in site selection to comprehensive design and construction services, Shimizu North America built this precision bearing and automotive parts manufacturing facility to fully support the client's need for the economical production of a high quality products. Shimizu North America's services included handling the relocation of the client's existing equipment and the installation and integration of new and used equipment into the facility.