February 1986

Overview:

Headquarters of Sharp's U.S. operations, this Mahwah facility also serves as a service center and warehouse. Shimizu North America designed a building sleek enough to reflect Sharp's hi-tech, leading edge image, that also contains a huge utilitarian space. Providing a full scope of design and build services, Shimizu North America worked with Sharp throughout the entire development of this project. Shimizu North America's involvement ranged from the selection of the site all the way to the post-construction maintenance.
